

HUDSON, DOROTHY LOUISE
November 19, 1917-August 7, 1934

The community was deeply grieved and shocked at the death of Miss Dorothy Hudson on August 7th, following several weeks of suffering from infantile paralysis. All that love, skill and care could do was lavished on her to no avail. The grim reaper whose name is Death had marked her for the garden of light and her spirit to be his consignment for the Angel of Light for that happier land.

Dorothy is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Hudson. She was born November 19th, 1917 and has grown up here, amidst friends whose grief at her passing is second only that of her relatives who survive her. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Hudson, her sisters, Barbara and Joyce, and her brother Clinton, her grandmother, Mrs. Noah Hudson living in California, her aunts, Mrs. Goldie Phelps, Mrs. Mary Augsbury, Mrs. Lelia Darst, Mrs. Ruth Faulkner, all residing in California.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, but it is thought services will be held Friday afternoon. The remains are in the Lyla Watson Funeral Home.
