

James Hughes

11-8-1998

James (Jim) Hughes, age 53, died in Frankfurt, Germany on Nov. 8. He was born June 15, 1937 in Wheatland.

He attended schools in Wheatland, and graduated from Wheatland High School in 1955. In 1961 he graduated from Denver University with a Bachelor of Arts degree, and later received a Master's degree.

He served two years in the U.S. Army, taught school in southeast Denver, and taught for the armed forces in Japan, Labrador, and Germany.

He was a member of Sigma Chi fraternity, the National Education Association and numerous other organizations.

He is survived by his mother, Iola Hughes of Wheatland, a brother, Jack Hughes of South Waverly, Pa., a sister, Kayé Erskine of Lingle, four nieces and one nephew.

Memorial services will be held Tuesday, Nov. 27 at 2 p.m., at Wheatland United Church of Christ.

Those who wish to contribute to a memorial art scholarship fund may do so at Wheatland High School, 1207 13th St., Wheatland, WY, 82201.