

LEX DOVER HUSTON

Services for Lex Dover Huston, 33, who died in Wheatland, Oct. 20, were held Tuesday, Oct. 22, at 10:30 A.M. in the First Christian Church with Father Kale King and Father Sidney Hoadley officiating.

Huston was born in Wheatland, Aug. 28, 1952, the son of Dover and Jean Ellis Huston. He spent his childhood on the family ranch, moving to town with his family when he began the 8th grade. He graduated from Wheatland High School in 1970.

He worked for area ranches for a short time, then joined the National Guard. After his active duty he returned to the Atkinson ranch where he was raised and operated it with his grandparents. He worked construction for a short while then purchased his own ranch west of Wheatland which he operated until the time of his death. He was an avid roper and rodeo participant.

Survivors include his mother, Jean Short of Wheatland, two sons: Cameron and Sean, three daughters: Kelly, Cortney and Josie, two grandmothers: Florence Ellis of Medicine Bow and Catherine Atkinson of Wheatland, and a great-grandmother, Ethel Townsend of Worland, Wyoming.

He was preceded in death by his father, a brother, Lee, and two grandfathers.

The Lex Huston Memorial has been established with proceeds to be used for the benefit of a local rodeo.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
