

HYATT, HARLEY C.

-October 11,

Harley C. Hyatt, World War Veteran who died Oct. 11th, a few days after his arrival here from Spokane, Wash., for his health, was buried Thursday from the Methodist church with military honors. The American Legion was in charge of the funeral and member of that organization acted as pallbearers. He was buried in the Wheatland cemetery.

His wife, Mrs. Helen Hyatt, left on Sunday evening for her home in Spokane, after spending several days as a guest at the J.E. Streed home.