

Vivian Maxine (Miller) Hytrek
1922-2008

Vivian M Hytrek, 83, died August 31, 2005 at the Central Wyoming Hospice Home. Services were held at the Newcomer Family Funeral Home in Casper with Pastor Milo Miller from the Highland Park Community Church of Casper. Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery in Wheatland, Wyoming.

Vivian was born January 26, 1922 in Bloomfield, Nebraska to Julius W. and Freda (Hohnholt) Miller. She graduated from Burns High School in 1940, attended Casper College and graduated from the University of Wyoming in 1973. She taught for four years at the Red Creek School and 18 years at Poison Spider School in Natrona County. She has resided in Mills Wyoming for 50 years. After retirement from teaching she volunteered at the Mills Library and at Fort Casper. She enjoyed knitting, needle work and square dancing. She attended Highland Park Community Church.

Survivors include sons, Bob and Jim Hytrek of Mills; daughter, Deborah Kienzie of Mills; Brothers G. O Miller of SD; Cecil Miller, Wheatland; Sisters, Ruth Metcalf, Cheyenne; Jule Hardy, Las Vegas, NV, grandchildren and great grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her parents, Sons, Edward and Dusty Hytrek; Daughter, Barbara Hytrek, and Brother Alvin Miller.

Memorials maybe made to the Central Wyoming Hospice Program or the Highland Park Community Church.