Sharon Arlene Isabell

February 9, 1947 – February, 2005

Memorial services for Wyoming State Training School resident Sharon Arlene Isabell, age 57, will be held on Friday Feb. 4 at 2 p.m. at the Wyoming State Training School Chapel. Chaplin Ron Coghlin from the training school will officiate. Cremation has taken place under the direction of Hudson's Funeral Home.

Sharon was born in Wheatland on Feb. 9, 1947 to Casmer W. and Doris Jean (Hopper) Isabell. Sharon first moved into the Wyoming State Training School in 1952 at the age of five where she lived up until her death. According to staff at the school Sharon loved holding hands, adored men, loved country western songs sung by the male staff members, loved her stuffed animals, and her babies. She also enjoyed the opportunity she had to visit the WSTS daycare. Sharon was described as a wonderful person in everyway, she had gentle loving eyes and an all around loving person who radiated love to everyone; she always gave others more than what she received. Sharon will be missed by everyone whose lives she touched.

Survivors include her mother Doris, her step father Robert Murphy; one brother Greg and his wife Marie Isabell. Also surviving are numerous aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews.

Sharon was preceded in death by her father Casmer who died in 1997.

The family requests memorial donations be made to the Wyoming State Training School in care of Hudson's Funeral Home 680 Mount Hope Drive Lander, WY 82520.
