

JENNINGS, EDWARD C.
1876-1922

Ed Jennings, long time resident of this section of Wyoming and for many years of Wheatland, died Tuesday morning at 2:00 o'clock of chronic Bright's disease, of which he had long been a sufferer. The funeral will take place from the Methodist church this afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, interment in the Wheatland cemetery.

Mr. Jennings had been in a serious condition a number of months and several times reports of his death have been current. The death finally took place at the family home on the George Mitchell ranch seven miles west of Uva, and the body was brought to the McCallum and Shierry mortuary where it has lain in state the past two days.

Deceased leaves a wife and five children. The latter are: Robert, Russell, Violet, Viola and Theodore.
