

Isaac Herman Johnson

4-22-1991

Funeral services for Isaac Herman Johnson, 82, were held Friday, April 26 at 10 a.m. at the Covenant Lutheran Church in Wheatland with Pastor Mark Patzke officiating. Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Herman Johnson died Monday, April 22 at the Platte County Memorial Hospital in Wheatland following a long illness.

He was born on January 10, 1909 in Dix, Neb., the son of Lambert and Tensia (Bengston) Johnson. He moved to Wheatland with his family in 1920 and attended Wheatland schools.

He farmed with his father, until his death in 1947 and continued farming the place until it was sold in 1965. He was married to Myrna Pence on September 20, 1936 in Wheatland, they celebrated their Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary on August 24, 1986 at the Covenant Lutheran Church.

He was the manager of the Blow Feed and Oil Company from 1954 to 1962, and also managed C.H. Brown Elevator after that for a number of years. He was a charter member of the Covenant Lutheran Church in Wheatland.

After retiring, he operated a bulk garden seed business. He considered his customers as special friends and enjoyed visiting and giving out garden tips.

He is survived by his wife, Myrna Johnson of Wheatland; two sons, Oscar H. Johnson and Robert E. Johnson both of Wheatland; one daughter, Jean Harvey of Oakland, Calif.; four sisters, Elsie Jessen, Edla Geringer, and Lenora Patterson all of Wheatland, and Evelyn Stephens of Loveland, Colo.; nine grandchildren; five great grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Thorston Johnson.

Serving as pallbearers were Duane Helgelien, Jim Prince, Rick Robbins, Bob Seidel, Bill Windmeier and Bob Lauck. Serving as honorary pallbearers will be all of his many friends.

A memorial to the Covenant Lutheran Church would be equally appreciated by the family.

The Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements.
