

JOHNSON, HAROLD BENCH

? -May 14, 1918

Mr. And Mrs. Frank R. Johnson are grieving over the death of their son, Harold Bench Johnson, which occurred at their home on May 14th, said to have resulted from complications following an attack of grip. The boy was only about 16 years of age. He was a member of the Wheatland Home guards and was given a military funeral, guard members acting as pall bears and the military honors given at the grave. The funeral was held from the Methodist church, Rev. J.A. McC.ennan officiating. Interment was by W.B. Longwith, the undertaker.
