

JONES, RETTA
1862-December 28, 1937

Mrs. U.S. Jones, who for many years resided on a farm a short distance northwest of Wheatland, passed away at the home of her son, Paul, at Marquette, Mich. on Tuesday of this week. Altho details of her death have not been learned , it is believed the end must have come suddenly, as her son was in Wheatland several months ago, and reported his mother being in the best of health.

Mr. Jones passed away about a year ago, and is buried in the Wheatland cemetery.

The remains are being shipped from Marquette to Wheatland and services will be conducted from the chapel of the Watson & Dennis Funeral Home on Sunday afternoon at two-thirty.
