

Mrs. A. L. Kendig Dies Suddenly Last Friday

Mrs. A. L. Kendig, mother of state Sen. Edward Kendig, D-Goshen - Platte, died suddenly in Platte County Memorial hospital in Wheatland.

Mrs. Kendig and her husband were married in Denver in 1920 and they lived all of their married life in Burns, Cheyenne and Wheatland, Wyo. They had lived in Wheatland since 1938.

Mrs. Kendig was born in Salisbury, Mo., and was a graduate of Stephens College, Columbia Mo., and Central Missouri State College at Warrensburg.

She was one-time English teacher and principal of Burns high school, and later was associated with the farmers State Bank of Burns.

She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star, past president of the WTK Woman's Club in Wheatland & past president (1960-62) of the Wyoming Federation of Women's Clubs.

At the time of her death she was serving as vice president and member of the board of directors of the Wheatland Community Scholastic Fund, Inc., the board of directors of the Wyo. Safety foundation, the board of directors of the Southeast Wyoming Mental Health Center and as a member of the advisory board of the Medical College of Pennsylvania.

She is listed in Who's Who of American Women.

She is survived by her husband, A. L. Kendig, chairman of the board of the First National Bank in Wheatland, and her son, Senator Kendig, who is president of the bank.

Funeral services were held Monday, March 12, 1973, at 2:00 p.m. at the Wheatland Methodist Church, with Rev. Robert Walkley officiating. Burial was at the Wheatland Cemetery. Pallbearers were Casmer Isabell, Harold Steely, Edward M. Cook, Jr., Mark Boughn, Charles Parsons and LeRoy Rutz.

The family would prefer memorials to the Wheatland Community Scholastic fund. Envelopes for the memorials are available at the Schrader Chapel.