

Flora Jane Kennedy

5-3-1990

Funeral services for Flora Jane Kennedy, age 78, were held at the United Church of Christ Monday, May 7, with the Rev. Dr. James S. Vuocolo officiating. Interment followed in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Kennedy died May 3 at the Mother Hull Home in Kearney, Neb. following a long illness.

Flora Jane Kennedy was born July 8, 1911, the daughter of Frank and Rose (Peevry) Henderson in Laramie. She was reared and educated in the Laramie area. She married John F. Kennedy in 1927 and moved to the ranch where she raised her two children and ranched until "Jack" passed away in 1971. At that time she moved to Wheatland and lived here until she moved to the Mother Hull Home in 1987.

Flora was an active member of the Wheatland Order of the Eastern Star #11, Garden Club, Laramie Peak CowBelles and was a sixty-year member of the Laramie Dell Club, the Dorcas Society and a member of the United Church of Christ. She served on the Senior Citizens Council and delivered "Meals on Wheels" for many years.

Flora is survived by a son, John B. Kennedy of Kearney, Neb., and a daughter, Roberta Barge of Cheyenne. Seven grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchildren, two brothers, Charles Henderson of Wheatland, George Henderson of Mora N.M., two sisters, Ellen Collier of Stockton, Calif., and Lillian Arp of Laramie, and fourteen nieces and nephews also remain.

She was preceded in death by her husband, parents and one brother, Frank.

Serving as pallbearers were Bart Barge Jr., Jim Kennedy, Jeff Barge, Brad Ryan, Frank Henderson and Bill Barge.

The family would appreciate a memorial to the Education Fund with the Laramie Dell Club.

The Platte Funeral Chapel was in charge of arrangements.
