

WILLIAM HENRY KENNEDY

7-13-1923

Services for William Kennedy, 86, who died July 13 in Cheyenne, were held Monday, July 18, in the United Methodist Church in Wheatland with the Rev. Delbert Dick officiating.

William Henry Kennedy was born April 29, 1897, in Logan, Iowa, the son of Martin and Ida Francis Kennedy. He was reared in Tekamah, Nebraska and moved to Wyoming to homestead in 1919. He ranched on the home place until ill health forced his retirement several months ago.

He was married to Dorothy Quick in June of 1929. He was a member of the Order of Eastern Star No. 11 of Wheatland, Shriners of Rawlins, Consistory of Cheyenne, and Wheatland A.F. & A.M. No. 16, having donated the land for the Wheatland Outdoor Lodge meeting. He was Pioneer Patron of 50 years of selling at Omaha Stock Yards Auction, a member of Albany County District No. 23 School Board for years and a member of the local square dance club.

Survivors include two sons, Jerry and Gene Kennedy and a brother, Pete Kennedy, all of Wheatland, and five grandsons.

He was preceded in death by his wife, two sisters and three brothers.

A memorial in his name has been established to the Wheatland Masonic Lodge for the outdoor meeting place.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
