

ALMA JANE KETCHUM

Alma Jane Ketchum, 73, a former Guernsey resident, and a resident of Englewood, Colo. since 1969, passed away on Wednesday, July 23 at Porter Memorial Hospital in Denver.

She was born in Wheatland on June 20, 1902 and was married to Martin E. Ketchum on July 2, 1934 in Gering, Neb.

She was a member of the Methodist Church.

Survivors include her husband, Martin of Englewood; one son, Albert Soward of Arvada; two daughters, Dorothy J. Dodge of Denver and Margee Byers of Durango; one sister, Ceclia Wilson of Wheatland; two brothers, Robert Sturgeon of Garrett, Wyo., and George Sturgeon of Meeker, Colo. She is also survived by 9 grand and 8 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the Schrader-Prell Funeral Home in Wheatland on Saturday, July 26th at 1:30 with the Rev.

Elliott Graves officiating. Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Earl Davis, Larry Wilson, Steve Stumbaugh, Russ Soward, Vince Wade and Fred Wade.

JULY 31, 1975

GUERNSEY GAZETTE JULY 31, 1975