

Long Time Teacher

Blanch King, Dies

1-10-1972
Blanche Irene King succumbed to an extended illness Monday, January 10, 1972, at the Platte County Memorial Hospital. She was 66 years of age at the time of death.

Born August 3, 1905 in Moorehead, Minnesota, Mrs. King had been a resident of Wheatland since 1935 and taught in the local schools for twenty years. She first taught in Minnesota for seven years; South Dakota, one year; two years in Worland and then two years in Wheatland, from 1935 to 1937. Returning in 1942, Mrs. King taught the sixth grade in the local schools until her retirement at the close of school in 1970.

She was married to J.B. King, who was the telephone manager in Wheatland for several years. He preceded her in death October 7, 1957.

Her church affiliation was with the United Methodist Church.

Those left to mourn her passing include, one step-son, Richard L. King, Cheyenne; one step-daughter, Mrs. Arnold (Eva) Carlson, Payette, Idaho; one grand-niece, Mrs. Joy Martin, Casper; one grand-nephew, Larry Adams, Jackson; three step-grandchildren and two step-great-grandchildren.

Services for Mrs. King were held Thursday, January 13, 1972 at 11:00 a.m. at the Schrader Chapel with Rev. Henry Hartberg conducting the services. Interment was at the Wheatland Cemetery. Those serving as pallbearers were, Lewis Moulton, Lucien Troughon, Lee Dunham, Alvis Marshall, Jr., Harold Garrett and Harold Cook.