

len I
die C
er V
and

Last rites Saturday for Mrs. Elsie Kissel

10-30-1963
Last rites for Elsie May Kissel, a resident of the Wheatland area since 1915, were held Nov. 2, 1963 at the Schrader Chapel at 2:00 p. m. with Rev. Robert Johnson conducting the services. Interment was in the Wheatland cemetery with George Bowman, Earl Bowman, Leonard Goolsby, George Liberty, Don Winkler and Mervin O'Brien serving as pallbearers.

Mrs. Kissel was born to Mr. and Mrs. Green Goolsby in Fortescue, Mo. July 15, 1897, and succumbed in the Platte County Memorial Hospital October 30 after a brief illness.

Relatives left to mourn include her husband John Kissel of Wheatland; three sons, Harry and Donald of Lingle and Howard of Cheyenne; four daughters, Mrs. Dolora Woodard of Cameron, Mo., Mrs. Maxine Koerwitz of Lingle, and Mrs. Thelma Potter and Mrs. Nora Olson, both of Wheatland; three brothers, G. E. Goolsby of The Dallas, Ore., Ralph Goolsby, Falls City, Nebr. and Harry Goolsby of Rulo, Nebr.; a half brother, Virgil Craig of Iowa; a sister, Mrs. Dora Roberts of Rulo, Nebr.; a half sister, Mrs. Virgie Vogeles of Falls City, Nebr.; stepsisters, Mrs. Jessie Liberty of McFadden, Mrs. Elsie Bryan, of Falls City, Nebr. and Mrs. Hattie Jewitt of Washington; and seventeen grandchildren.