

William Herman Klein

WHEATLAND — Services for William Herman Klein, 86, will be conducted at 10 a.m. Thursday at Wheatland Bible Church by the Rev. Lynn Nikkel of Memorial Baptist Church. Serving as honorary pallbearers will be his grandsons. Inurnment will take place at a later date.

He died June 7, 1998, at Platte County Memorial Hospital in Wheatland. He was born June 24, 1911, in Roseland, Neb., the son of Nicholas William and Anna Mae (Reis) Klein. He was raised and educated in the Hastings, Neb., area.

On Dec. 19, 1940, he married Hazel K. Jessen in Douglas. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II. He began farming in Wheatland in 1946 and purchased his farm in 1948, where he lived until his death.

He served on various community boards in Platte County. Farming was his life.

Survivors include his wife of Wheatland; three children, Laura Banta of Denver, and Dale Klein and Troy Klein, both of Wheatland; two sisters, Edna Struss of Kenesaw, Neb., and Sophie Reynolds of Fruita, Colo.; six grandsons; one granddaughter; and six great-granddaughters.

He was preceded in death by his parents, 10 brothers and sisters and a grandson.

Memorials to the Family Comfort Room, Platte County Memorial Hospital, 210 14th St., Wheatland 82201, would be appreciated by the family.

Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland is in charge of arrangements.
