

Susan B. Krusee

Sue B. Krusee died Feb. 11, 1988, at 3129 Acacia Drive, Cheyenne. Graveside services were held on Feb. 16, 1988 at Wheatland Cemetery with Pastor Andy Gudahl officiating.

Mrs. Krusee was born in Portage, Mont., on March 15, 1905 to Charles B. and Rose Mary (Sweeney) McChesney. Most of her early years were spent in Cassa.

She married Authur Royce Krusee in Thermopolis on May 16, 1925. Most of their married life was spent in Wheatland where they owned and operated a local business store.

In 1954 the Krusee's sold their business and home in Wheatland and moved to Crescent City, Cal. Mr. Krusee passed away there on April 28, 1969 and Mrs. Krusee returned to Wheatland where she remained until September, 1980 at which time she became a resident of Mt. Towers Healthcare Center in Cheyenne.

Mrs. Krusee was preceded in death by her parents, Charles B. and Rose Mary McChesney, her husband Royce Krusee, infant son Wallace B. Krusee, and brother Charles B. McChesney.

Krusee is survived by daughters, Hazel L. Hytinen of Eugene, Ore., Lois M. Pasley of Laramie, and Joan Diamond of Cheyenne. Also surviving are brothers James D. McChesney and William W. McChesney of Cheyenne and Robert D. McChesney of Renton, Wash., sisters Ella C. Caster of Casper, Nettie E. Hamilton of Keyes, Cal., Rose M. Applegate of Tacoma, Wash., and Stella M. Bennett of Wheatland. She is also survived by six grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Krusee was a member of the Order of Eastern Star, Banner Rebekah Lodge No. 16 and Past Noble Grand Club of Wheatland.

Pallbearers were Casmer Isabel, Frank Pasley, Don Gudahl, Glen Bennett, Darrell Bennett and LeRoy Bennett.