

LAMBERT, JOSEPH EARL
January 8, 1899-June 15, 1968

Funeral services for Joseph Earl Lambert who passed away at the VA Hospital in Cheyenne June 15, after an extended illness, were held Tuesday, June 18, from the First Christian Church with Mr. Dale Scheffler officiating. Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery with the IOOF Lodge holding graveside services. Frank Beal, Glen Whinery, George O'Brien, Harvey Hanks, William Sutherland and Roger Mills served as pallbearers.

Mr. Lambert, a retired county employee, was born in Ft. Collins, Colo. January 8, 1899. He was married to Zedia Louise Williams at Benkleman, Neb., April 2, 1921, and lived in Albany and Goshen counties before coming to Wheatland in 1952. Mr. Lambert was an army veteran of World War II. He was affiliated with the First Christian Church, IOOF Lodge and the American Legion.

Surviving in addition to his wife Zedia Louise, Wheatland; are a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Ellen Hall, Wheatland, and a son, Lloyd Harrison Lambert of Cody; seven grandchildren and two great grandchildren; a brother, Marvin R. Lambert, Torrington, and a sister, Mrs. Zeta Bell Haynes, Wheatland.