

LEWIS, ETTA MOORE
1870-June 6, 1943

Mrs. Etta Lewis of Dwyer, who had been ill in the Wheatland hospital for several days, died Saturday evening. She had not been in good health for the past several years, although her illness was not critical until recently. Funeral services, with Mr. Clarke Devore in charge, were held on Tuesday afternoon at the Christian church and burial was in the Wheatland cemetery.

Mrs. Lewis is survived by one son, Orlan of Dwyer, two daughters, and one son in California and one brother in Missouri.
