B. "Lee" Lindsey

Services for B. "Lee" Lindsey, 90, were held Saturday, February 6, at the Platte Funeral Chapel in Wheatland, Wyo., with Chris Walker officiating. Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mr. Lindsey died Wednesday, February 3, at the Platte County Memorial Nursing Home in Wheatland.

Lee, the oldest of nine children, was born November 8, 1908, to Samuel and Cora Belle (Montague) Lindsey. He spent most of his life in the Laramie Peak area. He was in the timber business but, also spent several years working for the Dick Hornbuckle Ranch at Douglas, Wyo. He enjoyed hunting, fishing and loved the outdoors; but, his greatest joy was playing music with friends and family; he played banjo, violin and mandolin.

Lee is survived by six children, Doris Boltz of Knox City, Mo., Virginia Cundall of Glendo, Wyo., Thelma Garwood of Glendo, Alene Lindsey of St. James, Mo., Gloria Sauerbier of Kalispell, Mont. and Brady Lee Lindsey Jr. of Arkansas; three brothers, Noble and Jimmy Lindsey both of Missouri and Curt Lindsey of Colorado; three sisters, Helen Gueswell, Pauline Brookhart, and Annabel Stonemetz all of Colorado; 20 grandchildren; 44 great-grandchildren; 11 great-great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Hazel (McKenzie) Lindsey; two brothers; and a grandson.

Serving as pallbearers were Bill Walker, Curtis Walker, Jared Walker, Cliff Byer, Fred Martinez and Duane Walker.

Memorials to the Glendo Rural Fire Department of Glendo Volunteer Ambulance Service, P.O. Box 396, Glendo, WY 82213 or to the Platte County Memorial Nursing Home, 201-14th Street, Wheatland, WY 82201 would be appreciated by the family.

Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements.
