

LINTON, GEORGE E.
May 15, 1919-December 7, 1941

George Linton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Linton, was reported missing by the Navy in a telegram received by Mr. Linton on Sunday of this week.

George was a Fireman, second class, in the Navy and was reported missing following "action in performance of his duty and in the service of his country" the Navy reported. The telegram was signed by Rear Admiral Randall Jacobs, chief of bureau of investigation.

George attended Wheatland high school and enlisted in the Navy in April, 1940.
