

938

Funeral Services
For R. B. Logan
Held Tuesday

6-11-1938

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon for Ryland B. Logan, 52, who passed away early Saturday morning, June 11, at his home west of Wheatland. Death resulted from a heart attack.

Mr. Logan was born in Loveland, Iowa in 1885 and lived in that vicinity until coming to Wheatland about seventeen years ago. Since then he had been successfully engaged in farming and cattle feeding.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Bill Trenholm and Mrs. Kenneth Saunders, one brother, five sisters, one granddaughter and other relatives.

Services were held at the Methodist church, conducted by Rev. Wilbur Wood. Arrangements were in charge of the Copley Funeral Home and interment was made in the Wheatland cemetery.

Prominent Farmer

Dies Suddenly Saturday

6-11-1938

Ryland Logan prominent Wheatland farmer died suddenly Saturday morning.

Mr. Logan arose early Saturday to load cattle, followed by breakfast. After breakfast he went to the barn to do the chores where he was found dead a short time later having suffered a heart attack.

He is survived by his wife and two daughter, Mrs. Bill Trenholm, and Mrs. Kenneth Saunders, other relatives and a host of friends.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 2 p. m. from the M. E. church with Copley Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

The Logans have lived near here for about 17 years. Their farm was located 2½ miles west of the Mason corner.

Obituary will be published Friday.