

LUNDY, CHARLES PERRY
November 22, 1878-July 3, 1947

Funeral services were held July 7, in Wheatland, for Charles P. Lundy, who died at Hot Springs, South Dakota. He was born in Pontiac, Illinois, November 22, 1878. At an early age, his parents moved to LaGrange, Wyoming, where his mother died, later came to Wheatland with his father. He was for several years City Clerk under Mayor O.O. Natwick. In 1935 was appointed foreman at the C.C.C. at Guernsey, later in 1942, was transferred to Deerfield, South Dakota, then to the Black Hills Ordinance depot at Edgemont, South Dakota. At the time of his death was employed by the State Land Office in Cheyenne.

He leaves to mourn his death his wife, Mary J. Lundy,; seven children, four step-children; a sister and several nephews in Salem, Oregon. His mother and father, two brothers preceded him in death.