

MARTIN, VELMA LEE
August 17, 1928-August 17, 1928

Tiny twin girls, born at 9:20 and 9:40 a.m., August 17, to Mr. and Mrs. C.L. Martin here, were soon parted when death claimed one of them at 10:40 the same night. The tiny body was buried in the Wheatland cemetery by the Watson Mortuary Sunday.

The other babe, while very small, seems quite sturdy and the parents hold high hopes for her well being. The combined weight of the twins was about nine pounds.

Mr. Martin is foreman of the mechanical department of the Times.
