A 4-year old Wheatland girl, Alicia Masie, died Sunday of chest injuries after the station wagon she was riding in hit an embankment, threw her from the vehicle and rolled on top of her, the State Highway Patrol said.

The driver, Theresa Conners, 27, of Wheatland, received minor injuries, and three other passengers were uninjured, the patrol said. The accident occurred at 3:40 p.m. on a county road 26 miles northwest of Wheatland.

Alicia was the daughter of Greg and Elizabeth Masie.
