

Clem V. Mason Laid To Rest

7-15-54

Death came Thursday, July 15, following an extended illness to Clem V. Mason, aged 88 in a local hospital. Mr. Mason was born October 8, 1865 in Ohio. Leaving there in 1889, he went to Iowa, where in 1897 he married Josie Babcock, who preceded him in death. They moved in 1909 from Iowa to Wheatland where he had since made his home, having retired from farming several years ago.

Mr. Mason is survived by a foster daughter, Mrs. Walter King of Wheatland, three half-brothers, Rome and Charles of Long Beach, Calif., and Lee of Ohio.

Funeral services were held Saturday, July 17, at 2:00 from Schrader Chapel with Rev. J. B. Milstead officiating. Interment was made in Wheatland cemetery with George Gamblin, George Woolsey, Russell Davis, Gay Robbins, Dale Wright and Charles Parker as pallbearers.
