

Woodrow [Woody] May

Funeral services for well known Wheatland area resident, Woodrow May, will be held Thursday, September 30, 1976, at 10:30 a.m. at the First Christian Church in Wheatland with Dan Barcus and Jim Blake officiating.

Mr. May passed away Monday, September 27, 1976 at Memorial Hospital in Cheyenne after an extended illness. The body will be in state Tuesday afternoon and all day Wednesday at the Schrader-Prell Chapel. There will be no viewing at the church.

Woody May was born in Edwards County, Illinois, January 21, 1913. Prior to moving to Wheatland in 1936, he had lived in Glendo and Douglas. He married Glyda Cochran here in Wheatland August 9, 1942. Mr. May had been self-employed on his own farm and ranch these last 40 years.

Mr. May was a member of the Farm Bureau, Laramie Peak Stock Grower's Assn., Wyoming Stock Grower's Assn., Rocky Mountain Charlais Assn., Wyoming Water Development Assn., Board of Directors for the First National Bank in Wheatland and a past member of Wyoming Agriculture Board.

Woody May will long be remembered for his many acts of kindness to persons in this community. He gave of himself and took great pleasure in taking young people on hunting and camping trips. He provided encouragement and support in helping kids to get a good start in life.

He is survived by his wife, Glyda and one sister, Mrs. Aline Nightengale.

Don VanPelt, Leo Norris, Orville Scranton, Orval Earle, Kenneth Cook and Larry Johnston will serve as pallbearers. Schrader-Prell Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements. A Memorial Fund has been estab-
