

MCGUIRE, CATHERINE M. BURNS
1870-January 25, 1937

Mrs. James F. McGuire passed away in the Memorial hospital in Cheyenne on Monday morning, Jan. 25th, after a lengthy illness. She was born in Lansing, Iowa in the year 1870.

The McGuire family moved to Platte county in 1918 and established their home on the Wheatland Flats. In 1929 they returned to Lansing where they remained until 1936 when they came back to Wheatland.

Besides her husband, Mrs. McGuire is survived by four sons, Tom of Nevada City, Calif., James H., Pat and Bernard of Wheatland; two daughters, Mrs. Wm. Martell of Wheatland and Mrs. Fred Gilson of Boone, Iowa; three sisters in Lansing, Iowa, Mrs. T.E. Kelleher, Mrs. Adolph Mathias and Mrs. T.J. Cassidy; one brother, Tom Burns of La Crosse, Wisc.; eighteen grandchildren and one great grandchild. She is also survived by her mother, Mrs. Rosy Burns of La Crosse, Wisc.

Mrs. McGuire was the second family relationship of five generations: Mrs. Rosy Burns, great-great grandmother, Mrs. James F. McGuire, great-grandmother, Mrs. Wm. Martell, grandmother, Mrs. James McQuisten, mother and baby Richard McQuisten.

Funeral services were held this morning from the St. Patrick's Catholic church in Wheatland, with Father Martin reading the Mass. Interment was made in Wheatland.

The Watson & Dennis Home for Funerals was in charge of arrangements.