

Wanda Jean McGuire (Woods)

November 4, 1937 – November 4, 2007

Mrs. Wanda Jean McGuire (Woods) was called home to be with her heavenly family on Nov. 4, 2007, her 70th birthday, after a long and courageous battle with emphysema.

Jean was born in Laramie on Nov. 4, 1937, to Clarence and Gertie Fielder. She attended St. Mary's schools in Cheyenne. She married Francis J. McGuire at St. Mary's Cathedral in Cheyenne on March 11, 1956, and began her 51 year career as a wife and mother.

She lived in Wheatland for forty-two years and attended St. Patrick's Catholic Church. She enjoyed genealogy and networked with people across the United States to research and document an extensive family history record, which she passed on to her children.

She was preceded in death by her parents and two sisters, Gladys Brummet and Jessie Grant. Left behind to cherish her memory and celebrate her life are her devoted husband, Francis McGuire of Wheatland, sons Michael McGuire and wife Tammy of Casper, Kelly McGuire and wife Jenny of Fort Worth Texas, daughters Patty McGuire of Wheatland, Terry McGuire of Oakland, Maine, Shawna McGuire of Waco, Texas, fifteen grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

Honoring her wishes, cremation has taken place and a ceremony will follow in the spring. In lieu of flowers, a memorial fund has been established at First State Bank of Wheatland in her name. The family would like to express their gratitude to the Platte County Memorial Hospital and the Davis Hospice Center for the care that they provided.
