

MRS. M'MULLIN PASSES

2-10-1930

Mrs. Lila Belle McMullin, aged fifty-three years, died on Monday, February 10th, at Wheatland, after an illness of several months duration. Mrs. McMullin was born in Eldora, Illinois, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McMullin moved from Illinois to Chugwater, Wyoming, making that place their home for some time, later selling out their holdings, there and returning to Illinois to make their home. Some weeks ago Mrs. McMullin came to the Wheatland Hospital for treatment. Her case was pronounced incurable but everything that skill and thought could do was done to prolong her life and give her comfort.

Mrs. McMullin is survived by her husband and two daughters, Misses Ollie and Irene McMullin, her mother Mrs. Wm. Davis, and two brothers, W. E. Davis and Norman Davis, of Chugwater, and a sister, Mrs. Jos. R. Campbell, of Wheatland.

Mrs. McMullin has borne her great suffering with patience and cheerfulness, leaving no means undone to be of comfort and cheer to those about her. The funeral will be held this (Thursday) afternoon at Wheatland and burial will take place here.

Mrs. W. H. McMullen Passed Away Here After Long Illness

2/13/30
Mrs. Lila Bell McMullen passed away here Monday night after an illness of about three years' duration.

Mrs. McMullen came here for treatment in November from her home in Summerville, Mo., but her condition was such that not much hope was held for her recovery.

A family funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Watson Mortuary Chapel by Rev. Orman C. King and interment was made in the Wheatland cemetery.

The deceased is survived by her husband, W. H. McMullen, three daughters, Iona, Ollie and Irene and two sons, Lester and Ralph, her mother, Mrs. W. E. Davis of Chugwater, four brothers and two sisters. Mrs. J. A. Campbell of Wheatland, is a sister of the deceased.
