

Esther Hill Luck McVay

1907-1995

10-3-1995

Funeral services for Esther Hill Luck McVay, 88, were held Monday, October 9, 1995, at 10 a.m. at the Christ United Church, Fort Collins, Colorado, with Reverend David Ferguson and Reverend Karen Lowe officiating. Graveside services and inurnment were held Monday, October 9, at 4 p.m. at the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. McVay died Tuesday, October 3, 1995, at her home in Fort Collins, Colorado. Esther was born January 5, 1907, Maquoketa, Iowa, the daughter of Edwin and Ada (Johnson) Hill. She was reared and educated in Canton, South Dakota, graduating from Canton High School in 1923 and then from the Dakota Wesleyan University in 1927. She lived in Laramie, Wyoming from 1930-1947, marrying Herman R. Luck on February 3, 1932, in Canton. They moved to Wheatland, Wyoming in 1947 and she lived there until 1981 when she returned to Canton from 1981-89, and moved to Fort Collins in September, 1989 until the time of her death. Esther married Roscoe G. McVay on February 21, 1981, in Wheatland. Esther was a member of Christ United Methodist Church of Fort Collins, the Seekers Bible Study Group, United Methodist

Women, and the Harmony Music Club of Wheatland. During her lifetime, Esther was a Red Cross scoail worker and an elementary school teacher. She will be remembered as a wonderful mother and housewife.

Esther is survived by a son, David R. Luck of Evergree, Colorado; a daughter, Lorraine Luck Shuler of Fort Collins, Colorado; a stepdaughter, Ardis McVay Else of Sibley, Iowa; stepson, Glenn McVay of Sioux Falls, South Dakota; eight grandchildren; four great grandchildren; six stepgrandchildren; twenty-six step great grandchildren; and six step great-great grandchildren.

She was preceded in deather by her parents; her first husband, Herman R. Luck in 1965; her second husband, Roscoe G. McVay in 1984; a daughter, Jeanne Luck Qualls in 1976; and a sister, Mary Hill Stearns in 1956.

Memorials to Christ United Methodist Church or the Hospice of Larimer County, in care of Warren-Bohlender Funeral Chapel, 121 W. Olive, Fort Collins, Colorado 80524, would be appreciated by the family.

The Warren-Bohlender Funeral Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.