

MERBACK, FREDA GRANT
November 1, 1905-April 14, 1936

Freda Grant Merbeck, beloved wife of Frederick C. Merbeck, passed away in the early hour of Tuesday morning, April 14th, 1936. Mrs. Merbeck had not been in good health for some time but in the last week had shown so much improvement, that her sudden death came as a distinct shock to scores of friends in Wheatland.

Mrs. Merbeck was born in Wheatland, Wyoming, November 1st, 1905. She graduated from Wheatland high school with the Class of 1924. On September 28th, 1927, she was united in marriage to Frederick C. Merbeck, and has lived in Wheatland continuously since that time. Here it was that the happy young couple built the lovely little home, which was so dear to her.

Relatives besides her husband are three young sons, Donald, Rick and George, her mother, Mrs. Georgia Grant and two brothers, Hubert and Blain of Casper, Wyoming, and her father, Forest Grant of Wheatland.

The mother and brothers arrived Monday night from Casper to be at her bedside.

Mrs. Merbeck was a patient and loving mother, and a wonderful homemaker and wife. Her sweet disposition will long live in the memory of those intimately knew and loved her.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon from the Congregation church with Rev. Morgan performing the final rites. Burial will be in the Wheatland Cemetery with Lyla Watson Funeral Home in charge.
