

Augusta Miller Of Glendo Dies In Cheyenne

12-18-1971
Augusta B. Miller, 94, who homesteaded in the Glendo area in 1912, passed away, after an extended illness, at DePaul Hospital in Cheyenne, Saturday, December 18, 1971.

She was born at Auburn, New York, February 28, 1877 and for the past few years had been making her home at the Eventide Rest Home in Cheyenne.

Preceding her in death were her husband Hiram S. Miller, in 1953, and one son, Clayton Miller in 1944.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. William Poulson, Wheatland, eight grandchildren, 19 great grandchildren, and 14 great great grandchildren.

Interment was in the Wheatland cemetery, with services being held Wednesday, December 22, 1971 at 10:00 a.m. at the Guernsey United Presbyterian Church. Rev. Edward Dahl officiated.

Pallbearers were Mrs. Miller's grandsons.