

4-18-1980
Claude Clifford Miller, 85, died Friday, April 18, at his home southwest of Wheatland.

He was born Oct. 26, 1894 in Mackay, Id. He was the son of William and Amelia Dixon Miller. He moved to Rock Springs with his family when he was a small child. He was reared and educated in the Rock Springs/Pinedale area.

He met Sophie E. Graefe and married her in Wheatland June 28, 1927. After their wedding, the couple moved back to Rock Springs where Claude was involved in mining for a short time. They moved to Lander where Claude was engaged in ranching for 15 years. In 1948, they moved to Wheatland and have operated a farming and ranching operation southwest of town until the time of his death.

He is survived by his wife, Amelia of Wheatland; two daughters, Helen Uhlman of Cheyenne and Amelia Miller of Denver. He is also survived by three grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, three brothers and five sisters.

Funeral services were held Monday, April 21, 1980 at the Schrader-Prell Funeral Chapel in Wheatland. Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery. A memorial has been established to the Platte County Memorial Hospital.

The Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.