

DONALD BERT MILLER

Services for Donald Bert Miller, 64, who died June 14 in Wheatland, Wyoming were held at the First Christian Church in Wheatland, Saturday June 16 at 2 p.m. with Reverend Charles Clough officiating.

Donald Bert Miller was born June 30, 1919, in Chugwater, the son of Bert M. and Agnes Miller. He was reared and educated in Chugwater, graduating from Chugwater High School where he was outstanding in sports.

He worked on various ranches in the Little Bear area and for the C & S Railroad for 10 years and the Continental Pipeline for nine years. He and Margaret Richards were married in Chugwater, Sept. 16, 1939. They have lived in Wheatland since 1960.

He was a member of the Moose Lodge of Wheatland and the Baptist Church of Chugwater.

Survivors include his wife, Margaret (Mickey) Miller of Wheatland, two sons, Robert and his wife, Shirley, of Wheatland, Tim and his wife, Becky, of Wheatland, a daughter Patsy Christensen and her husband, Johnnie, of Rock River, a sister, Georgia Ramsey of Wheatland, eight grandchildren and one great grandchild.

He was preceded in death by his parents and by two brothers, Alva and Eddie.

Memorial contributions in his name may be made by choice of the donor.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery with all of his friends serving as Honorary Pallbearers.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.