

MILLER, SOPHIE EMILIE GRAEFE

June 2, 1900-May 19, 1989

Funeral services for Sophie Emilie Miller, 88, were held Tuesday, May 23, 1989, at the Platte Funeral Chapel with Rev. Susan Denker officiating. Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Miller died May 19, 1989 in Cheyenne following a long illness.

Sophie Emilie Miller was born June 2, 1900 in Goodland Kan., the daughter of Richard and Magdalena (Miller) Graefe. She and her family moved to Wheatland in 1902. She was reared and educated in Wheatland, graduating from high school in 1919. She attended the University of Wyoming and received her teaching certificate, then taught school throughout Wyoming and Colorado.

On June 28, 1927, she married Claude Miller at the family farm south of Wheatland. After their marriage they farmed for 15 years near Lander. In 1948 they returned to Wheatland to the family farm where she remained until October of 1987 at which time she went to live with daughter.

She is survived by her daughters, Amelia Miller of Denver and Helen Uhlman of Cheyenne, grandchildren Glen Uhlman of Wheatland, Carol Mayer of Douglas, Debra Uhlman of Denver, Richard Miller of Fort Collins and Ed Miller of Billings, Mont., and six great grandchildren. Mrs. Miller was preceded in death by her husband, her parents, her brother, Gus Graefe, and his wife, Ollie

Serving as pallbearers were Howard Eidenberry, Wallace Baker, Alan Weber, Richard Chase, Dave Hinman and Marlin Baker.

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to the Life Care Center in Cheyenne or to the charity of choice.

The Platte Funeral Chapel was in charge of arrangements.
