

Vivian Leete Miller

August 20, 1908 - June 19, 2001

Vivian Delorace Whittington was born August 20, 1908 in Hammond, Ind. She spent most of her life in Wyo. and Colo. with a brief time in Fla. during her teens. Vivian married Charles Leete in Greeley, Colo. on August 4, 1929. One daughter, Charlotte was born in Greeley on September 22, 1930. Shortly thereafter the family moved to Laramie. Following Charles' death in 1936, Vivian and Charlotte lived with of near her parents, George and Ida Turner in Wheatland.

On May 29, 1961, Vivian married Tollif Roy Miller, whose violin music was enjoyed by many. Tollif passed away in 1975. In 1977 Vivian moved to Ronan and then to Polson, Mont. In the summer of 1998 Vivian moved with her daughter and son in law, Charlotte and Jim Weldon to Yacolt, Wash. to be near the grandchildren.

For all of her years in Wheatland, Vivian was active in the Christian Church, teaching, acting as Sunday School secretary and in the women's work.

Vivian is survived by her daughter, Charlotte; two grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, and seven great-great-grandchildren.

Memorial services were held in Vancouver, Wash. on July 1 and burial will take place later this summer in Wheatland.