

June Maxine Mills

June 12, 1923 – December 14, 2015

June Maxine Mills passed away at Serenity House Hospice in Phoenix, AZ on Dec. 14, 2015, at the age of 92. Born on June 12, 1923 in Bird City, Kansas, she was the sixth of seven children born to Lou and Roy A. Shrader. Due to unfortunate family circumstances, at the age of two, June and two of her siblings were taken in by other families. She was raised by Boyd and Grace Boyington, along with their own children. Preceding her in death were her brothers Lloyd, Woodrow, Marvin, and Warren Shrader, Dale Kinder and sister Naomi Ireland, as well as Harvey, Glen and Vira Faass Boyington.

June moved to Wheatland during her teens and graduated from Wheatland High School with the class of 1941. She met Marvin Mills while still attending school and they were married in November 1941. June was a homemaker who enjoyed preparing great meals for her family and was a skilled seamstress. She was in poor health much of her life, but prior to that enjoyed gardening. She liked baseball and was a fan of the Arizona Diamondbacks. She enjoyed the occasions she was able to spend with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

June is survived by daughter Nancy Bachmann, son Alan Mills, grandchildren Scott Bachmann, Dana Brownlee, and Leah Balasa, great-grandchildren Reya and Kai Bachmann, Cody and McKenzie Brownlee, and Olivia Balasa. Her sister, Hollis Kehlbeck and brother Frank Kinder also survive, along with numerous nieces and nephews.

Inurnment will be in the Wheatland Cemetery. Memorial donations can be sent to Mission to South Africa, PO Box 50063, Casper, WY 82605
