

MILLS, LUCILE JACKSON
August 20, 1893-March 18, 1982

Lucile Mills, age 88, passed away at the Platte County Memorial Hospital Thursday, March, 18, 1982.

Lucile Jackson was born Aug. 20, 1893 in Toledo, Iowa, the daughter of Norman and Maria Wade Jackson. The family moved to Wheatland when Lucile was 15 years old. She graduated from the Wheatland High School in 1911. On Feb. 19, 1914, she married Samuel Roger Mills here in Wheatland. They lived on the Jackson homestead for a short time then they filed their own homestead North of town. After living on their farm for several years, Lucile and Roger moved to Wheatland. The couple celebrated their 68th wedding anniversary last month. Mrs. Mills was a member of the First Christian Church in Wheatland since 1930, serving as Sunday School teacher for many years. She has lived in Platte County for 73 years and was a member of the Rebeka Lodge. Lucile and Roger traveled extensively during their years together and visited every state but one. They also traveled in Mexico, Canada and several European countries.

She is survived by her husband, Roger of Wheatland; two sons, Marvin of Phoenix, Ariz., and Harry of Farmington, N.M.; and two daughters, Helen Cook and Marian Peek, both of Casper. Surviving also are 14 grandchildren, 29 great-grandchildren and 8 great-great grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted Monday, March 22 at the First Christian Church in Wheatland with Dan Barcus officiating. Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

A Memorial has been established in her name to the First Christian church. The Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.
