MONTGOMERY, LEO FRANK
February 7, 1908-April 8, 1965

Lee Frank Montgomery, well known rancher, succumbed in the Platte County Memorial Hospital April 8, 1965, at the age of 57. Born in Wheatland February 7, 1908, Mr. Montgomery was a lifetime resident of this area where he ranched 30 miles west of Wheatland. He married Florence Wilson in Bridgeport, Nebr. on March 27, 1936.

Last rites were conducted by Rev. Clifford Polson at the Methodist church on April 10, at 2:00 p.m., with interment in the Wheatland cemetery. Pallbearers included Tom Atkinson, Tom Bennett, James Robbins, Al Bennett, John Wilkinson, and Charles McAuley. Honorary pallbearers were Ralph Hall, James Hall, Archie McAuley, Clem McAuley, Les Atkinson, William Boyd, Jack Bruegman, and Julius Galligar.

Surviving relatives are his wife, Florence; mother, Mrs. Cora Montgomery, brother, Jack Montgomery; sister, Mrs. Mary Rawlings and several nieces and nephews.