

MORRIS, JOYCE GANYON
April 15m, 1919-December 26, 1975

Joyce G. Morris, age 56, passed away Friday, December 26, 1975 at the Platte County Memorial Hospital. A rosary was said Sunday, December 28, 1975 at the Schrader-Prell Chapel. Funeral services were held Monday, December 29, 1975 at St. Patrick's Church with Monsignor John Corrigan conducting the ceremony. Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

John Bell, John Kafka, Les Stinnette, Bill Lebsack, Chet Daly and Bob Roger served as pallbearers.

A resident here for 9 years, Mrs. Morris was born in MayBell, Colo. April 15, 1919. She married Joe Morris June 29, 1937 at Craig, Colorado. She lived in Encampment from 1939-1966 and was very active in the area. She belonged to the Civic Club and was a 4-H leader there. A Catholic, Mrs. Morris was a member of the Rebekah Lodge. She worked as a restaurant and hospital cook.

She is survived by her husband, Joe Morris, Sr., two sons, Ray Morris of Wheatland and Joe Morris, Jr. of Salt Lake City, Utah; one brother, Gene Gagnon and one sister, Elfrieda Sweeney, both of Craig, Colo. and five grandchildren.