

MORRISON, MILTON C.
May 24, 1893-September 8, 1938

Milton C. Morrison was born May 24, 1893 in Wheatland, Wyoming. He was the first child born in this town.

He lived a greater part of his life in Wyoming.

He married Anne Miller at Wheatland April 7, 1917.

Early in life he felt a definite call to follow the Christ. He was a member of the Congregational church at Wheatland and later became affiliated with the Federal church at Morris, Illinois.

At the time of his death he was employed by the government at Morris, Illinois.

He is survived by his wife, Anne, and two children, Milton, Jr. and Mary Beth. Three children preceded him death. His aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. Coll Morrison still survive and a sister, Alice M. Robb of Omaha.