

Milton Morrison Electrocuted Near Chicago Last Thursday

9-8-1938

Services For Milton Morrison Held Monday

9-8-1938

Funeral services for Milton Morrison of Morris, Illinois, son of Mr. and Mrs. Coll Morrison of Wheatland were held Monday afternoon from the Congregational church with Rev. Flenner officiating.

Word was received by Mr. and Mrs. Morrison of his death Thursday, September 8. Mr. Morrison was electrocuted when he touched a live wire while working on the government canal locks at Morris, Illinois.

Surviving is his wife and two children, Milton Jr. and Mary Beth, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Coll Morrison, one sister, Mrs. John Robb of Omaha, Nebraska and other relatives and friends.

The body was transferred from Morris to Wheatland and interment was made in the Wheatland cemetery.

The Copley Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon for Milton Morrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Coll Morrison, who was electrocuted last Thursday when he touched a live wire while at his work on the government canal locks at Morris, Illinois, located near Chicago.

Funeral services were held from the Congregational church with Rev. Flenner delivering the last rites. Copley Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements with burial in the Wheatland cemetery.

A complete obituary will be published in Friday's issue.