

MOSES, HARRY G.
December 7, 1880-January 12, 1966

Harry G. Moses, 85, a resident of Guernsey since 1917, succumbed in Platte County Memorial Hospital on January 12, 1966. He entered the hospital January 1. Mr. Moses was born in Ames, Ia. on Dec. 7, 1880. He was married to Clara A. Hochesttler on June 14, 1902 in Aurora, Nebr. and homesteaded near Guernsey in 1917. Mr. Moses ran a transfer business from 1924 until his retirement in 1953.

He is survived by his wife Clara of Guernsey; son, J.A. Moses of Cheyenne; daughters. Mrs. Laura McCormick, Glendo; Mrs. Alice Collins, Sunnyvale, Calif.; Mrs. Margaret Vaughn, Yuma, Ariz. and Mrs. Harriett Cunco, Denver; and brothers, George, Cecil and Cyril, all of California. Thirteen grandchildren and one great grandchild also survive.

Last rites will be conducted by the Rev. David Stewart at the Guernsey Community church on January 15 at 11:00 a.m., with interment in the Wheatland cemetery.

Pallbearers will include Lloyd W. Green, Ned Jeffers, Clarence Stellpflug. Lawrence Larson, Nick Wegher and William Frederick. Honorary pallbearers will be George Collins, John Kelly, William Cook, Dante Testolin, Ed Decker and Charles Frederick.

Friends who prefer may contribute to the Guernsey Community church memorial fund.