

Amelia B. Moulding 1902 to 1996

Amelia B. Moulding, 94, died peacefully on Thursday, Oct. 24, 1996, in Tempe, Ariz.

She was born on June 26, 1902, the daughter of Anton and Emma Beran.

She graduated from Wheatland High School in 1920 and taught school for one year.

June 25, 1923, Amelia was married to Lawrence Moulding in Wheatland.

They farmed on the Wheatland Flats for 45 years and upon retirement moved into town.

Since 1976, Amelia has lived in Chandler, AZ, where they moved because of ill health.

Amelia was a long-time member of Rebekah

Lodge in Wheatland and was a member of the Methodist Church.

She enjoyed quilting at the Chandler Senior Center and being with her many friends in San Tan Mobile Home Village.

Survivors include her daughter Barbara Moser of Salt Lake City, UT; her brother, Wilmer Beran of Wheatland, four grandchildren and five great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Lawrence, and her son Eldon.

Burial will take place in the Wheatland Cemetery alongside her husband.
