

10-28 LAWRENCE S. MOULDING 1984

Memorial services for Lawrence S. Moulding, 85, who died in Chandler, Ariz., Oct. 28, were held at the Wheatland Odd Fellows Hall Nov. 2 at 2 p.m. with the Reverend Virgil Lamm officiating.

Moulding was born in Dorchester, Neb. on Dec. 22, 1898, the son of Thomas and Anna Moulding.

The family moved to Wheatland in 1904 settling on a farm south of town. He graduated from Wheatland High School in 1916 and then served in the U.S. Army during World War I.

He and Amelia Beran were married June 25, 1923. They farmed on the Wheatland Flats for 45 years and, upon retirement, moved into Wheatland.

In 1978 they moved to Chandler, Ariz., because of his ill health.

He was a member of the Methodist Church and for 58 years was a member of the I.O.O.F. Lodge in Wheatland.

Survivors include his wife, Amelia, and his daughter, Barbara Moser of Salt Lake City, Utah. His son, Eldon, preceded him in death in 1980.

A memorial fund has been established in his name for the Respiratory Department of the Platte County Memorial Hospital or to the I.O.O.F. Lodge in Wheatland.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.
