

HENRY MUDD

9-10-1933

Silently and swiftly the Death Angel swooped in the hours between Saturday and Sunday taking the soul of Henry Mudd to his last home. Henry Mudd was born April 3, 1857 in Memphis. Mo. He came to Wyoming 49 years ago and has since made this his home. For 30 years he was an employee of the Wyoming Development Co. He was married to Mrs. Sheldon. to them was born one son, Don Mudd who with a sister survive him. He took up a homestead on the Sybille and engaged in cattle raising in which he was very successful until recent years when failing health of both wife and himself compelled him to slacken his labors. No man possessed more trusting loyal friends than "Hank" Mudd, whose passing will wring their hearts sorely. Funeral services were conducted in the Masonic Temple at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and burial made in the Wheatland cemetery beside his beloved wife under Copley Funeral Home direction.
