Grief struck deep in the hearts of all when it became known that Mrs Kathryn Mudd had died at her home here at about 6 o'clock Friday evening after a prolonged illness. Mrs. Mudd came to the Wheatland community in 1890. She is survived by her three sons, her husband and hosts of friends. Funeral services were held in the Episcopal church Monday afternoon, and burial in the Wheatland cemetery under direction of the Copley Funeral Home. Mrs. Mudd was a member of the Episcopal church, the O.E.S. She truly lived a life of charity for all with malice toward none, and her cheery smile will linger in memory long after other memories are dimmed.
