

MULLIN, CORA THOMPSON
June 2, 1878-October 28, 1955

Last rites were conducted at the Schrader chapel at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning, November 1, for Cora Mullin, 77, who succumbed October 28 at a local hospital after a month's illness. The Rev. Alfred Coolidge conducted the services, and pall bearers were W.I. Sutherland, John Phifer, John Merback, Harry Dearing, Harold Loomis, and Pat Daly. Burial was in the Wheatland cemetery.

Mrs. Mullin, the daughter of Jasper N. and Janet Lumen Thompson, was a lifetime resident of the community, having been born in the Laramie river area June 2, 1878.

Surviving are a son, John J. of Elko, Nev.; two grandchildren and six great grandchildren.